BoMill recruits new CFO

BoMill AB ("BoMill") has recruited Per Heander as new Chief Financial Officer (CFO). Per Heander has over two decades of experience from the venture capital segment. He will join BoMill as CFO on May 6, 2021.

Per Heander has a strong background in the venture capital area and extensive experience from working with growth companies included listed companies such as Invent Medic Sweden AB, a company listed at Spotlight Stock Market.

Heander has spent many years with ALMI Invest, most recently as Investment Manager.

CEO Andreas Jeppsson comments:

"BoMill welcomes Per as our new CFO and an important member of our senior management. He will bring valuable expertise from the listed environment, in addition to his solid background in venture capital. We would also like to thank Mikael Lundborg for his dedicated efforts and expertise during an important phase in BoMill's history."
